Ahuja Museum for Arts

Museum

Ahuja Museum for Arts is a private, one-of-a-kind of Museum. It houses and displays the personal art collection of Mr. S.D. Ahuja consisting of over 2000 works of art of over 250 artists. We have been showcasing 300 paintings every year from 2012 onwards by displaying a unique set of 50 paintings from the collection every two months. This collection started over 30 years ago and is added to nearly everyday. It consists of art from around the world, particularly India and Asia. It will be our endeavor to encourage all residents and visitors to Calcutta to come to the museum. We look forward to your presence with your friends and family.

Scholarship

S. D. Ahuja Foundation is passionate and committed to support Fine Arts. It has created a fund to support needy and deserving students who are pursuing a career in Fine Arts, by means of a scholarship. For the past 4 years it has been successfully supporting young artists from West Bengal and from 2015, has decided to reach out to more artists throughout India. The scholarship is for students pursuing their Bachelors degree from a recognized Fine Arts College of India.
